

World Flour Day 2021 - a tribute to the flour heroes all over the world!
 On March 20, World Flour Day will be celebrated. This year's motto will be "White Gold: A tribute to flour heroes all over the world". World Flour Day 2021 highlights the vital contribution of farmers, millers, transporters, bakers and many other flour heroes who have maintained a steady supply of the "white gold" under extremely challenging conditions.

World Agricultural Supply and Demand Estimates
 The supply and demand outlook for 2020/21 U.S. wheat is mostly unchanged this month but there are offsetting by-class changes to exports and imports. White wheat exports are raised on continued strong sales and shipments to China and South Korea. Conversely, Hard Red Winter exports are lowered as commitments to several Western Hemisphere markets are below a year ago. The season-average farm price is unchanged at $5.00 per bushel.

IAOM Eurasia Bulletin was published digitally in more than 50 countries from America to the Far East and attracted great attention.

Focus on Russia
 Russia has become the world's leading wheat exporter, but the country has moved to limit the amount shipped abroad in an effort to dampen prices on its home market. The country's production remains subject to the variations in its harsh winters.
 According to data from the Russian Union of Flour Mills and Cereals Plants, published by the European Flour Millers, of which the Russian organization is an associate member, there are 281 industrial flour mills in the country.

WORLD GRAIN-A conversation with Alexander Korbut

In the 21st century, Russia has transformed itself from being a net wheat importer to ranking first in the world in wheat exports two of the past three marketing years. The Eastern European country, which has nearly 8% of the world's arable land and plans to bring even more into production, has without question become a major force in the global grain market.

Elvan Odabası- Subject Wheat

Every process from the production of food to its consumption is directly related to life. Wheat has been the basic food of the people whose basic need is nourishment in these lands throughout the history of humanity under all circumstances. The Anatolian lands, which are grain and pulses storehouses, have truly made maternity for all living things throughout human history. From spike to wheat, from wheat to flour, from flour to bread, from bread to human; a labor story, a life story, a history...

Grain: World Markets and Trade

Wheat prices rose in most major exporting countries since last month's WASDE amid the implementation of Russia's export policies and concerns with winter wheat conditions in the United States and Black Sea, combined with strong import demand from several major markets. Most major exporter quotes are trading within a narrow range, though over the past month Argentine quotes have fallen, reflecting abundant supplies after its recent harvest.
