

World Flour Day 2021 - a tribute to the flour heroes all over the world!

On March 20, World Flour Day will be celebrated. This year's motto will be "White Gold: A tribute to flour heroes all over the world". World Flour Day 2021 highlights the vital contribution of farmers, millers, transporters, bakers and many other flour heroes who have maintained a steady supply of the "white gold" under extremely challenging conditions.

Elvan Odabas- Subject Wheat

Every process from the production of food to its consumption is directly related to life. Wheat has been the basic food of the people whose basic need is nourishment in these lands throughout the history of humanity under all circumstances. The Anatolian lands, which are grain and pulses storehouses, have truly made maternity for all living things throughout human history. From spike to wheat, from wheat to flour, from flour to bread, from bread to human; a labor story, a life story,

Global Market and Ukraine

Someone is waiting for miracle-working vaccine, someone for mirific disappearance of the virus. People always for miracle. What should the miller wait for taking into account that 2019 was bad for both Ukrainian and global markets? Quite strange heading, as it seems at first. However, it is easy to explain - the world is waiting for miraculous changes in the new year, after shocked brought by COVID-19 last year
